MANCHESTER BUREAU RICHMOND TIMES, 1121 HULL STREET, BEATTIR BLOCK. Some time ago a colored man, named Abner Baker, was arrested in this city for stealing brasses from the raffroad cars. He was tried before Mayor Maurice and sent to jail. Recently he has been stowing signs of insanity. He at first began by breaking the windows of the iall, and destroying whatever he could ket his hands upon. For the past two or three days he has been worse than usual. He shows a disposition to attack persons who come near him, and has to be kept closely confined to prevent his injuring his fellow prisoners. A commission of lunacy will sit in his case in a day or two, and he will be sent to the asylum

Chief-of-Police Lipscomb killed a mad dog Tuesday, which was running about the streets of the city. The animal showed the streets of the city. The animal showed fight when the Captain attacked him, and it took three bullets to end his career. It is not known whether any other dog was bitten by the rabid canine. A gentleman by the mame of Crumb called at the station-house yesterday morning and notified Captain Lipscomb that a very valuable cow of his was missing, and it is impossible to tell whether the animal strayed away or has been stolen. Mr. Crumb, who resides in Chesterfield county, says he brought the animal here with him a few months ago from Dakota.

Complimenting Mr. Lynn. The Norfolk Landmark published the following in reference to the re-election of Major B. W. Lynn as Superintendent of the Peniterklary: The re-election of Mr. B. W. Lynn as Superintendent of the Peniterklary was a deserved compliment to a faithful and in telligent officer. It was more than this, it was an act of justice and of wisdom toward the State itself. Mr. Lynn is not only a competent and thoughtful officer, he is a progressive and philosophical student of general management. His ideas for the future systematic government of the Penitentiary and care of inmates will he referred to in there columns from time to time in the future."

A Generous Donor.

A gift of $5,000 was received yesterday by the Rosemary Library. One thousand deliars is to be applied to the purchase of books, and the balance invested by the trustees as a permanent fund. The only condition attached to the gift is that the name of its generous gift is that the name of its generous maker shall not be disclosed. It is hoped that the generosity that has hitherto characterized many of our citizens and the munificence of the gift just mentioned may stimulate others to the support of the Rosemary, which is maintained en-tirely by voluntary contributions. It is unsectarian. It is a duly incorporated institution, and all contributions are applied under the supervision of trustees whose names are a guarantee of right disposition of the funds.
